The Democratic State Executive Committee at its meeting in Louisville Saturday acceded to Congressman James' request and amended the primary call so as to include the endorsement of a candidate for United States Senator. THEY DIDN'T ADVERTISE.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one day where lambs, you know, should never go. And Mary sat her quickly down and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found the lamb because she did not advertise. Mary had a brother John who kept the village store; he sat him down and smoked a pipe, and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy John still sat and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the Sheriff closed him out but still he lingered on, and Mary came to drop a sympathetic tear. How is it sister, can you tell why other merchants here, sell all their goods so readily and thrive from year to year? Remembering her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "These other fellows got there, John, because they advertise."—Exchange.

WHAT A NEWSPAPER IS NOT.

A newspaper is in no sense a special child of charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives and it is second to no enterprise in contributing to the upbuilding of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it, though generally it receives less. Patronize and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you, and not as an act of charity.—Richland (Ga.) Georgian.

IN MEMORY.

Meads Branch, Jan. 27, 1911.—Willie Reynolds, was called home to God. Willie was one of our country's brightest young men. He was only 19 years, 4 days old. Willie lived a true Christian life, and was loved by all who knew him, but God in his wisdom doeth all things well. He has placed him in a Heavenly home and says to his father and mother and brother and sister, "Look up and prepare to meet dear Willie." He will be watching at the beautiful gate for you. Dear father and mother you can't bow around the home fire with Willie in prayer now. He is missed in the Sunday school, where he was one of the teachers. He is now with dear Jesus, where there is no more parting and there will be no more good byes to those that meet him. A few minutes before he died he called all to his bedside telling them to meet him in Heaven.

Willie was a correspondent of the News at this place until he took ill with consumption. Oh, how we miss him in the home, we can hear his voice no more in the home and we can see his vacant chair. His classmates at school will remember him with love. Dear sorrowing ones Jesus alone can comfort you in this trying hour. Look to him for help and get ready to live with dear Willie. He leaves a father and mother one brother and one sister to mourn his death.
